

Afternoon Tea has been a staple of our flagship hotel - The Langham London - since 1865. This afternoon ritual has been a part of their signature as one of the leading luxury properties in London for over 140 years. This marvelous tradition of taking time from one's busy day, to enjoy the soothing, calming and restful properties of the world's finest tea now lives on in our Afternoon Tea Service.

Our Selections of indulgence:

Hampton Court Palace

$18 per person will include Scones and Pastries

For almost 200 years, Hampton Court Palace was at the centre of court life, politics and national history. Given by Cardinal Wolsey to Henry VIII c.1526, the palace was a residence for figures including Mary I and Elizabeth I, Charles I, William III and Mary II, and retains many furnishings and objects from their times. It houses some important works of art and furnishings in the Royal Collection.

Windsor Castle

$24 per person will include Scones, Pastries and Tea Sandwiches

Windsor Castle is an official residence of The Queen and the oldest and largest occupied castle in the world. A royal palace and fortress for over 900 years, the Castle is furnished with treasures from the Royal Collection including paintings by Holbein, Rubens, Van Dyck and Lawrence, fine tapestries and porcelain, sculpture and armour.

Buckingham Palace

$36 per person will include Scones, Pastries, Tea Sandwiches, a Special Plated Signature Dessert and a glass of Cristalino

Buckingham Palace has served as the official London residence of Britain's sovereigns since 1837. It evolved from a town house that was owned from the beginning of the eighteenth century by the Dukes of Buckingham. Today it is The Queen's official residence. The State Rooms of the Palace are lavishly furnished with some of the greatest treasures from the Royal Collection and some of the finest English and French furniture in the world.
